

POSSIBILITY OF EXECUTION

General Crowder's Reply to Draft Resisters Given in a Formal Statement

TROUBLE IN THREE SOUTHERN STATES

Opponents of Conscription Law May Become Liable to Military Court-Martial

Washington, Aug. 6.—Registered men who resist the selective draft law face military court martial for desertion in time of war. The whole military and civil power of the federal government and the civil power of the states, cities or counties will be employed to bring them to book.

This was announced in a formal statement Saturday night by Brig. Gen. Enoch H. Crowder, provost marshal general, in response to reports from North Carolina, Georgia and Oklahoma of anti-draft disturbances. As yet the power of the federal government has not been invoked by the governors of the three states nor by the agents of the department of justice.

CUTICURA HEALS YOUNG BABY'S RASH

In Three Weeks. Itched and Burned. Could Not Sleep.

"When my baby girl was about six weeks old she broke out with a rash on her head, face, and body. It came in the form of water blisters and itched and burned so that she could not sleep, and when she scratched, water would run out and cause crusts. All her hair came out and where the eruptions were I had to keep bandaging."

"I tried many remedies. Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They seemed to help her and in less than three weeks she was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Georgia Collins, Sherman, Me., Sept. 15, 1916.

Nothing better to clear the skin of pimples, blotches, redness and roughness, the scalp of dandruff and itching and the hands of chapping and soreness. Cuticura Soap used daily for all toilet purposes with touches of Ointment now and then to soothe and heal tends to prevent skin troubles.

For Free Sample. Each by Return Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. R, Boston." Sold everywhere.

Washington of the disturbances was a telegram from the governor of North Carolina saying that the registered men of two townships in that state might refuse in a body to comply with the summons for examination.

No official word came from Oklahoma, where the most serious situation prevails. It was believed the governor, both in his official state capacity and as the direct agent of the president in the execution of the draft law, is confident that the order can be restored without military aid. There will be no hesitation, however, in employing federal troops if they are needed.

FOOD BILL DOESN'T SUIT SENATOR REED

Missouri Talks Two Hours and Says That He Has Only Started.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Although there were indications that the Senate does not propose to adopt the conference report on the administration food control bill without further debate, leaders were hopeful Saturday night, after it had been discussed for several hours, that the measure may be in the president's hands before the end of this week.

Attack upon the conference report was opened Saturday by Senator Reed in a two-hour speech which he concluded by stating that he had "just begun" his remarks. The Senate recessed before the conclusion of his address until to-day. The Missouri senator renewed his caustic criticism of Herbert Hoover, prospective food administrator, and deplored action of Congress generally and the food bill conferees in particular for "cringing" under the official "lash."

Most of the time of Saturday's debate was occupied by Mr. Reed and supporters of the conference report plan to make few and brief remarks in its defense. Senator Reed, however, stated that he did not intend to delay adoption, but would move to recommit it to conference with instructions upon the various features against which he has centered his opposition.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, in charge of the bill for the administration, declared the country is demanding immediate action.

CONSCRIPTION IN CANADA.

Made Certain by Passage of Act to Second Reading

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The Canadian Senate Friday night advanced to second reading the conscription act thereby insuring its passage through Parliament. A motion by the opposition that the act should not take effect until after a general election was defeated, 44 to 24. Three senators, who are classed as government followers, voted for the motion. Nine liberals, including the leader in the Senate, voted for the bill.

LLOYD GEORGE ON THE WAR AIMS

Victory Must Be Complete, British Premier Tells Anniversary Gathering

London, Aug. 6.—David Lloyd George, British premier, in the presence of a distinguished gathering representative of all parties which met Saturday afternoon in Queen's hall, London, to mark the third anniversary of the declaration of war, reiterated the aims for which the entente allies were fighting, and indicated only conditions under which they would consent to a suspension of hostilities with the central powers.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the national war aims committee, and was probably the greatest patriotic demonstration of the year. The expectation had been that the premier's speech would be a most important one.

The marquis of Crewe, leader of the Liberal party in the House of Lords, was chosen to preside. He was supported by the archbishop of Canterbury, 20 members of the government and 100 members of Parliament. Baron Sonnino, Italian foreign minister, and Nikola Pachitch, Serbia's premier, were invited guests.

The prime minister said he did not trust the German peace talk. "Neither the Kaiser nor the chancellor," he declared, "has yet said he would be satisfied with German soil. They talk glibly about peace but stammer over the word restoration. Before we have a peace conference they must learn to use the word restoration. So far they have not learned even the first letter of the alphabet."

The premier, on opening his address, asked what would have happened if Great Britain had not entered the war. He answered this question by saying:

"Europe would have been at the mercy of a cruel military power. Russia would have disintegrated sooner. France would have fought bravely, but might have been overwhelmed. America's Monroe doctrine would have been treated as a scrap of paper. The fact to-day is that we have checked the ambitions of Germany."

In the course of his speech Premier Lloyd George said:

"Victory must be so complete that our national liberty never again shall be challenged."

"Russia learned that an army without discipline is a rabble."

"There are some here who want to set up committees for the British army and direct the control of the war. We cannot

DANISH WOMAN REGAINS HEALTH

Tells Everybody What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Her.

Chicago, Ill.—"It gives me great pleasure to let others know that I improved in health with the first bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; after taking two bottles I am entirely well. Before taking it I could not do any kind of work without a pain in my back as I suffered so much from inflammation. I had headaches, was always tired and no appetite. Words cannot express my gratitude for the good your medicine has done me, and through me to my family. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women suffering from female troubles, particularly to Danish women."

—Mrs. META DAMGAARD-MATZAN, 2137 Kimball Ave., Chicago, Ill.

It is positively true that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

allow a sectional organization to direct the war or to dictate the terms of peace. The nation as a whole made war and the nation as a whole must make peace."

The premier paid a tribute to Italy, whose greatness, he said, was in itself additional security for peace and liberty throughout the world.

PUTS WAR TAX BILL UP TO $2,000,790,000

Chief Increase Under Senate Committee's Revision is $362,000,000 on Profits.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The revised war tax bill which will be reported to the Senate to-day by the finance committee will raise $2,000,970,000, according to final official estimates completed Saturday night, or about $135,000,000 more than the House provided and $331,800,000 more than the Senate committee had planned to raise before the new war estimates were submitted to Congress.

Chairman Simmons hopes to call the measure up for debate this week. Leaders look for the bill's passage within a fortnight, estimating another two weeks for conference with the House will be necessary. They expect the bill to become law within a month.

Principal Senate changes in the House bill as finally adopted by the committee provide for net increase of income taxes of about $72,000,000, of war excess profits of $362,000,000 and on intoxicants of $31,000,000.

CONFIDENCE IN KERENSKY.

Voted By Five Parties—Gurko's Arrest Result of Political Changes.

Petrograd, Aug. 6.—The political conference at the Winter palace at Petrograd ended Saturday when each of the five parties present passed a resolution declaring its confidence in Premier Kerensky and inviting him to form his own cabinet. Four of the resolutions declared that a new cabinet should adhere to the program of reform and consolidation issued by Premier Kerensky on June 21, but the constitutional Democrats in their resolution made no mention of the program, which they continue to oppose.

Premier Kerensky's decision has not yet been received. The arrest of Gen. Gurko, former commander of the Russian armies on the southwestern front, says a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd, took place in the Russian capital, and, newspapers there say, was brought about by political charges made against him. A detachment of troops surrounded his residence early Saturday morning. After a search of three hours the general was found and taken to general staff headquarters.

By hitting out a triple in Friday's game between Pittsburgh and Boston, Carlson, the Pittsburgh pitcher, registered his second hit out of 30 times at bat this season.

Sporting Notes.

Robert Byrne has been released outright by the Philadelphia National league club. Byrne was an infielder.

In Friday's game between New York and Cincinnati, Kauff, the Giant star, hit safely four times up and drew a base on balls. He also starred in the field, having five putouts to his credit.

What is believed to be the world's record was made last week when Calbert, the left fielder of the Muskogee club in the Western association, registered his 35th home run of the season.

Charles Foley, the one-armed outfielder of the South Windham team, is a star in spite of his handicap, as his record shows. He has accepted 26 chances without an error, and has hit for 428. He scored nine runs in seven games, hit in all but one, and in one game made four hits out of five times at bat and scored three runs.

Gardner's fighting was one of the features of Friday's game between Boston and Cleveland, when he was credited with one putout and seven assists.
